Attorneys for Plaintiffs Boston Telecommunications
Group, Inc. and Roderick Marshall

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

BOSTON TELECOMMUNICATIONS
GROUP, INC. and
RODERICK MARSHALL

Plaintiffs,

v.

ROBERT WOOD

Defendant.

CASE NO. C02-5971 JSW

MISCELLANEOUS ADMINISTRATIVE REQUEST FOR TELEPHONIC FURTHER
CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE; ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER

2 The parties in this case have been notified of a Further Case Management Conference
3 to be held on March 19, 2010. Plaintiffs' lead counsel, Steven M. Cowley, hereby requests
4 that he be permitted to participate in the case management conference by telephone. Mr.
5 Cowley is chair of his firm's pro bono committee. Allowing him to participate in the case
6 management conference by telephone will permit him to attend the Pro Bono Institute's
7 annual seminar in Washington, D.C. from March 18-20. While he realizes that this does not
8 represent a conflict with another court date, given his role in pro bono matters at the firm, he
9 should attend the seminar if at all possible. Mr. Cowley's direct office line is (617) 951-
10 2283. He can make himself available at this number at the firm's Washington, D.C. office
11 during the time of the case management conference.

12
13 If this arrangement is not satisfactory to the Court, Mr. Cowley respectfully requests
14 that Thomas Wintner, an associate at the firm who has recently received pro hac vice
15 admission for purposes of this case, be permitted to attend the case management conference
16 in person in his absence; provided, however, that Mr. Cowley may still participate in the 17 conference via telephone.

18
19
20 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

21
22 Mr. Cowley, lead counsel for the Plaintiffs, will be permitted to participate in the 23 March 19, 2010 Further Case Management Conference by telephone, at the number listed
24 above.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.

26 Dated: March 4, 2010
